OWENS BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Measure Prohibits Sale of Liquor Mornings Between 1 and 5 O'clock

San Francisco Delegation Is Solid Against Bill; Will Vote to Reconsider

SACRAMENTO, March 27.—Senator Owens' bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in any city or county in California between the hours of 1 and 5 in the morning was passed by the upper house this morning by a vote of 28 to 11. The San Francisco delegation, declaring the measure was a direct attack upon their city, voted as a unit in the negative.

Amendments exempting cities that had voted freholders' charters and making the hours from 2 to 4, instead of from 1 to 5, were voted down by the Senate after liberal debate.

Senator Finn of San Francisco gave notice that he would move for a reconsideration of the bill tomorrow. The Gates vice-investigating committee appointed under the Beban resolution calling for a senatorial inquiry into the relation between low wages for women and the social evil reported to the Senate this morning and it was impracticable to comply with the terms of the resolution and was discharged.

Diggs and Caminetti Waive Examination

Married Men Who Eloped With High School Girls Await the Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—Maury I. Diggs, former state architect, and F. Drew Caminetti, son of Senator A. Caminetti, appeared before United States Commissioner Krull this morning and waived preliminary examination on charges of violating the Mann act, which makes it unlawful to transport women from one state to another for immoral purposes. They asked that judgment be deferred for a week. Diggs and Caminetti, both prominent socially, eloped from Sacramento to Reno, Nev., with two sorority girls, Miss Marsha Warrington and Miss Lola Norris, but were arrested and brought back to this state. Both are married men.

LOS ANGELES, March 27.—When Superior Court Judge Willis admonished Frank Oleson to keep away from Miss Anna Overland and find another girl, Oleson took the jurist at his word and started out to find her. He found her, but the discovery resulted in his arrest. Miss Sophie Kraus, the girl, swore to an insanity complaint against Oleson today. A few weeks ago Miss Anna Overland, a school teacher, objected to Oleson's attentions and caused his arrest.

Berkeley Gains Point In Waterfront Bill

Amendment Providing for Resumption of State Control Defeated.

SACRAMENTO, March 27.—The Assembly this afternoon declined by a vote of 46 to 16 to amend the bill granting the city of Berkeley control over its waterfront so as to provide for the resumption of control by the state. Passage of this and other bills turning over to cities control of tidal lands now held by the state was forecasted by the vote. Assemblyman W. E. Chandler of Fresno proposed the amendment, urging it on the ground that the state was less apt to allow waterfront privileges to pass into the hands of private corporations than was the municipality.

To Consider State Aid for Sufferers

Senate and Assembly Committees to Confer Concerning Relief.

SACRAMENTO, March 27.—A joint resolution directing the appointment of a committee of three each from the senate and assembly to confer with Governor Johnson on the subject of a plan to lend state aid to the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana was introduced in the upper house today by Senator Caminetti. It was referred to the committee on rules. Senator Caminetti asked immediate action under suspended rules, and the resolution probably will be taken up late this afternoon. A proclamation by Governor Johnson calling upon the people of California to contribute to relieve the suffering caused by the disaster is in process of preparation and will be issued today from the executive office.

He admitted that there was little evidence against her and that he did not believe she could be convicted of any offense. "If my attorney advises me to do so I will tell everything I know," said Mrs. Pope, who yesterday declared that she did not know Conn was a burglar.

Wire and rail communication in Ohio practically destroyed. Death loss will amount to thousands. Property destroyed hundreds of millions. Quartermillion people homeless and shelterless. Today we need funds more than anything else." Mayor Mott called a mass meeting at the Chamber of Commerce for 8:30 this afternoon to discuss relief.

MANY CITIES IN PATH OF RAGING WALL OF WATER

Big Buildings of Dayton Leveled by Fire; Death List at Columbus May Reach 1000

Disease Threatens to Sweep Indianapolis and City Will Be Placed Under Martial Law

DAYTON, O., March 27.—Last night's devastating fire, which apparently slumbered during the day, has begun again to burn fiercely. Watchers from the top of the cash register office saw numerous explosions in the flames.

DISASTER, doubling and tripling its force, swept over Ohio again today. Great reservoirs are going out. Thousands of people are in line of the torrents with little chance of escape.

The War Department at Washington early today received the news from Hamilton, Ohio, that the Lewistown reservoir was weakening, threatening an enormous loss of life and property.

From South Bend, Indiana, came the news that the Cellina, Ohio, reservoir, the largest in the world, was reported broken. If this is true, thousands will be imperiled, scores of towns will be wiped off the map and the whole of Northwestern Ohio and Northeastern Indiana will be flooded.

FIRE RAGING IN DAYTON.

A fearful fire that destroyed blocks of Central Dayton last night with a large loss of life was raging early today, but was under control at noon. Hundreds of persons are known to have been driven to the top floors. Famine, exposure and disease will add to the toll of death.

Water in the streets there is ten to twenty feet deep, and it is impossible to render any aid, for boats cannot live in the raging torrents.

Those watching from across the river saw several persons racing to and fro upon the roofs. During the night a driving snow storm began and continued until noon today.

MANY BLOCKS ARE SWEPT.

A message received at Sidney, Ohio, from Dayton, via Tippecanoe today, says that fire has consumed that territory of the city bounded on the north by First street, on the east by St. Clair, on the south by Third street and on the west by the Boulevard. If true, the information means that territory nine blocks long and two blocks wide has burned.

The burned section contains the Beckel House, courthouse, jail, Central Union Telephone Company, Commercial Bank building and some other structures.

THOUSAND DEAD IN COLUMBUS.

Reporters of a Columbus newspaper and officials in charge of rescue work in that city state positively that between 600 and 1000 persons lost their lives in the flooded west side of Columbus.

Indianapolis may be under martial law before today is over. West Indianapolis was placed under military control at noon today. Governor Ralston is determined to act against the commission merchants who have raised the price of foodstuffs. Disease has arisen from insanitary conditions and threatens to sweep the city.

Secretary of War Garrison left Washington today for the flood district to take personal charge of relief measures.

FIRE SWEEPS DOWNTOWN SECTION OF OHIO CITY

DAYTON, Ohio, March 27.—Further from danger from flood was passing today, but the apprehension of great loss of life from famine, exposure and sickness was growing hourly.

The flood waters receded three feet during the night and it was expected before darkness most of those marooned in the downtown district would be liberated. Four motor boats which arrived from Cincinnati this morning were taken to the water's edge and an effort made to extend immediate relief to the more urgent cases found.

Many dead are being removed from the river at Riverdale. They are being stacked three deep along the bank, according to

1000 REPORTED ON DEATH LIST OF COLUMBUS

Western Part of City Is Wiped Out by Tremendous Flood.

Rivers Rising in All Sections; Property Loss Will Be Enormous.

COLUMBUS, March 27.—Between 600 and a thousand persons lost their lives in the flooded west side of Columbus according to reports of the Columbus Dispatch. The paper has just got into communications with their office from previously isolated sections of the city. This same estimate is given by persons in charge of the relief stations on the hilltop of the flooded section.

According to those who invaded the stricken district, it was crowded with refugees, many of whom had been rescued from the murky waters and told stories of indescribable horrors. Former Mayor Marshall said the death toll would reach at least a thousand.

TRAGEDY IS HEARTRENDING.

Excited throngs from the flood-stricken district who were crowded into temporary rescue quarters, asserted that the estimate was not exaggerated. The true extent of tragedy will not be known for several days until the mass of hundreds of uprooted trees, which are strewn over the lowlands south of the city are uncovered. This mass of debris now in under several feet of water with swift currents running in many directions.

Many of those rescued tell of escaping by seconds just before the rushing waters swept their homes away and crushed them like egg shells against bridges. Scores of families were swept down with their houses in the swift current.

Every available inch of space in the Columbus state hospital for the insane and the Mount Carmel Hospital on the hilltop is occupied by refugees.

Four children are reported to have been born in a school house on the hilltop. Fire Chief Laster said he saw scores of persons standing on their porches as the water swept down and he cannot believe any of them escaped.

SITUATION RELIEVED.

Relief trains from Marysville and London, bearing food and clothing, relieved the situation in the refugee quarters on the hilltop where hundreds of homeless are waiting news from relatives.

Work was especially directed toward rescuing 250 from the marooned plant of the Sun Manufacturing Company, where they had been for two days without food or heat. One boat, which got within halting distance and was stopped by the whirling current, was informed that conditions there were terrible.

Estimates of a heavy loss of life in the extreme west side of the stories told and scenes witnessed by the rescuers who have been working continuously with rough boats for forty hours.

The break in the levee near Central avenue, washed everything before it. According to refugees from that section there is not a house standing on Glendwood and many of the parallel streets are almost completely destroyed of buildings.

That money by telephone is the urgent need of Ohio's flood swept districts is the substance of a proclamation issued by the governor today.

Scores at Work on Lewiston Reservoir

BELLEFONTAINE, O., March 27.—Led by pastors of the churches who called their congregations together and emphasized the urgent need of assistance, and aided by children and women of endangered villages, scores of men worked all night and continued their efforts today to repair the threatened breaks in the banks of the Lewiston reservoir.

The first relief train entered the city from Toledo last night and 200 passengers of the wrecked Pennsylvania train, who have been marooned here were taken to Urbana during the night.

word just received at the Western Union headquarters. It started snowing again this afternoon.

The estimate of dead, 5000, apparently is near correct. The total number of dead never will be known and Dayton dreads the day when receding waters will lay bare the full extent of the disaster.

NEED SUPPLIES QUICK.

George P. Burba, representing Governor Cox telegraphed to the governor urging that special emphasis be given the great need of immediate supplies of provisions. There is not a full day's food supply in the city and before night it is likely that thousands who have been held down without food or water since Tuesday will be released and there will be no provisions for them nor places to care for them.

Burba says that within a day bodies of thousands of horses will be decomposing in the muddy streets and it will be impossible to care for the human bodies.

WILL AID NORTH SIDE.

If the down town section is relieved by night, it may permit the city authorities to unite with the militia and the relief committees in an organized attempt to give aid to the North Side tomorrow.

Except for a solitary branch of the Dayton, Lebanon and Cincinnati, over which only a single train can creep occasionally rail communication has not been restored. It takes 12 hours for a train from Cincinnati, a distance of 50 miles.

Mayor Hunt of Cincinnati has been urged to see that a trainload of supplies be kept constantly on the move on this road.

BODIES WASHED UP.

All of today's bodies were washed up or exposed as the water fell. No one knows how many have been recovered. The five different sections of the town are cut off from each other. Through all, prominently to the fore, stands the facts that a firm belief in the strength of the great Miami river levee and a feeling of safety added much to the huge death loss.

Early Tuesday morning volunteers hurried through the threatened district warning residents to move. These warnings largely were disregarded. But at 8 o'clock those who treated the warning lightly were battling for their lives in the rush of the waters. The west levee had gone out.

HOUSE TORN OUT.

Other breaks followed. A reservoir break added to the torments and homes were jerked from their foundations and torn to pieces.

Fifth street bridge and a railroad bridge went out. Four others are standing and can be used as soon as the water goes down.

The toll of life also was augmented through the lack of boats. Riverdale, where the greater number were saved, had 25 boats taken from a pleasure resort. The volunteers risked their lives to remove persons trapped in their homes. "Women and children first" was the order and many rushed through the town streets shouting "Flee for your lives; the reservoir has broken!" Families living outside the danger zone gathered their babies and belongings in their arms and fled for the cash register office, crisscrossing that already over-crowded structure.

BOATS ARE SMASHED.

"Swim," the rescuers told the men who were able to do so. Before the first day was over boats could not be used. Time and time again they were smashed.

On the roof of one house all day yesterday a little boy clung. He was rescued more dead than alive today. Needless suffering was caused by a report today of the breaking of the Lewiston reservoir. Men rushed through the town streets shouting "Flee for your lives; the reservoir has broken!" Families living outside the danger zone gathered their babies and belongings in their arms and fled for the cash register office, crisscrossing that already over-crowded structure.

65,000 IN DANGER.

A small portion of Dayton's citizens today from their refuge on the highest point in the city awaited anxiously to learn of the fate of at least 65,000 of the city's inhabitants hemmed in by rising flood water and menaced by fire.

Although only a little more than a mile from the district where it is feared there has been the greatest loss

SMALL BAND OF BRAVE MEN AT WORK IN DAYTON

JOHN H. PATTERSON.

DAYTON, O., March 27.—Relief work today in Dayton is in charge of private citizens. It was impossible to communicate with the mayor or other city officials, as they, with more than half the population of 150,000 are hemmed in by the water, but the work is being done well by a small band of citizens in the southeast part of the city who happened not to be caught in the business section when the flood suddenly made egress from buildings impossible.

The relief work is in charge of John H. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register Company. More than a thousand refugees are receiving medical attention and food at the cash register plant, which has been turned into a huge hospital and lodging house.

Rescue Work Goes On at Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, March 27.—Organized rescue work was resumed after daylight today in the flooded district of West Indianapolis. Police officials and rescue workers estimated that 500 persons spent the second night in the second floors of houses and buildings.

Three were known to have been drowned and a night of snow and freezing temperature threatened an even greater stage may be reached.

The Central Telephone Station was abandoned last night and all trains leaving or entering this city are being detained.

Largest Reservoir in World May Go

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 27.—Alarming reports as to the condition of the Grand reservoir at Celina, Ohio, were modified after investigation by the telephone officials in this city. The first information from Celina said that the reservoir had burst, but later reports stated that though the bank had considerably weakened they still held.

The first town in the path of a probable flood, according to the information given the telephone company here today, was Decatur, Ind. Port Wayne and Peru, as well as other flood-stricken cities in the Wabash river valley, would face danger from a still more extensive flood.

The whole of Northwestern Ohio and Northeast Indiana, would be in danger of flood and scores of towns might be wiped out if the reservoir gave out.

SCENES INDESCRIBABLE BUILDINGS ARE IN DANGER

NEW YORK, March 27.—A summary of conditions in Dayton last night, as reported over the American Telephone and Telegraph line to Phoneton and forwarded to this city, follows:

"One of our employees, who returned this evening from the north side of the submerged district of Dayton, says the scenes there are indescribable. People are huddled in churches and public school buildings and there is danger of these collapsing. Three babies were born in one church this afternoon. One was born in a boat while its mother was being conveyed to safety. Such scenes are common."

"Every effort was made by us to aid the sufferers with supplies and such other help as we could. "There is a building said to contain 600 persons and indications were that it would collapse in a short time. Two men seen using a pleasure boat to view the scene had to be pressed into rescue service by the police at the points of sholigns."

"Many buildings in a portion of the downtown section were destroyed by fire this afternoon. Indications are that there will be great loss of life before enough help arrives to get people to places of safety."

"A relief committee which met in the north side of Dayton this afternoon reported between 50,000 and 100,000 homeless. Many dead bodies were floating past."

"There is great danger from spread of disease. The river has been falling steadily all afternoon. The rain has subsided now, so the fire has practically nothing to check it."

"The relief work is in charge of John H. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register Company. More than a thousand refugees are receiving medical attention and food at the cash register plant, which has been turned into a huge hospital and lodging house."

Typographical Union Votes First Funds

The first donation from Oakland for the aid of the stricken multitudes in Omaha and Dayton was made last night when Typographical Union No. 26, of Oakland, voted $100 for the relief of the flood victims. The money was wired this morning, $50 to the governor of Ohio and a like amount to the governor of Illinois. Secretary D. L. Beatty of the union was assured that the money would be in the hands of the executives before evening. The donation was voted unanimously, and it is expected that other organizations in the city will follow this lead. Several large organizations are planning subscription lists and benefits for the sufferers.

BERKELEY'S RESPONSE PROMPT.
BERKELEY, March 27.—Not content even with the prompt action of yesterday, which resulted in the immediate dispatch of $1000 to Governor Cox of Ohio for the relief of flood sufferers, Berkeley citizens intend continuing their efforts in the unfortunate's behalf. Tomorrow afternoon a relief committee will be organized at the city hall, delegates having been appointed from every civic and official organization in the city. Sunday afternoon a mass meeting will be held at the Hearst Greek Theater at the University of California immediately following the half-hour of music when further efforts will be put forth.

APPEAL TO CITIZENS.
Outlining the plan of relief and the need for it, Mayor Wilson has issued the following appeal to the citizens: "To the Citizens of Berkeley: A terrible calamity has befallen the citizens of two sister states. Homes have been washed away, millions of dollars worth of property have been destroyed, and thousands of lives are lost. Our hearts are moved to deepest sympathy, and without exhortation we are ready to act. All that is needed is to organize our sympathy for these sufferers and to unite in action. "I called representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the Charity Commission, the School Board and the Press to meet in the mayor's office with the com-oil and plan organized measures of relief.

"Our general plan is as follows: On Friday afternoon, at 4 p. m., a relief committee will meet in the council chambers at the city hall. The following persons are herewith appointed on this preliminary committee, and requested to be present or send substitutes: Members of the council. Members of the school board. City editors of each newspaper. Charity Commission. Pastor of each church, and one layman to be appointed by the pastor. President and secretary of Chamber of Commerce. President and secretary of Manufacturers' Association. President and secretary of Real Estate Exchange. Chief officials of each fraternal organization. President and secretary of Trades Unions. President and secretary of each woman's organization. Representatives of University of California.

COMMITTEE TO BE NAMED.
"A committee on relief fund will be named at this Friday meeting. "A program committee will organize for a Sunday afternoon mass meeting at the Greek Theater, where subscriptions and collections will be taken. "I appeal to every man, woman and child in the city to take this great calamity of our fellowmen to your hearts and to respond in practical assistance to the measure of your ability. Remember how the whole world poured out material aid to us after earthquake and fire. If we all do our little share, it will count up in the aggregate. Our help will be gratefully received in the homes of the flood-stricken citizens of Ohio and Indiana."

Mayor Wilson yesterday afternoon telegraphed Berkeley's $1000 to Governor Cox, directing the governor to draw a sight draft for that amount when needed. His telegram follows:

"Governor Cox, Columbus, Ohio: Relief committee on behalf of the flood-stricken in Ohio and Indiana organized this morning in the city hall of Berkeley, California. Draw on us for one thousand dollars sight draft through First National Bank of Berkeley. This assistance will be increased if necessary. Citizens mass meeting Hearst Greek Theater, University of California, on behalf of sufferers Sunday, March thirtieth. Our hearts go out to your people in deepest sympathy. (Signed) "MAYOR J. STITT WILSON."

PHYSICIANS SENT.

CHICAGO, March 27.—Six yaws loaded with enough provisions and water to last a week, 52 recruits and two surgeons from the United States naval recruiting station at North Chicago, Illinois, in charge of First Lieutenant John L. London, left for Logansport, Ind., today on a special train.

In response to a request from the mayor of Fort Wayne, Ind., Captain Carlin and five men from the United States Living Station in Chicago left with a power surf boat to rescue 25 children marooned in an orphan asylum.

BOSTON, March 27.—In response to an appeal for help for the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana, sent out by Governor Foss as president of the Red Cross board for Massachusetts, $20,000 was received in a few hours.

BAKERSFIELD GENEROUS.

BAKERSFIELD, March 27.—The proceeds of a day will be subscribed by Bakersfield merchants to the California relief fund for the flood-stricken cities of Ohio and Indiana, according to an announcement of off-cials of the board of trade following a meeting of that organization. Bakersfield lodges of Elks and Eagles forwarded funds last night to the relief committee at Dayton, Ohio.

GOVERNOR SYMPATHETIC.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 27.—Governor Bismarck telegraphed Governor Cox of Ohio:

"If such tents and supplies as are at our disposal are needed please command me. Our citizens are ready to respond to any call for financial aid."

DUTY IS REMOVED.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Secretary McAdoo will admit free of duty relief supplies from Canada for the flood sufferers of Ohio and Indiana. He waived the tariff restrictions today upon the receipt of a telegram from Mayor Price of St. Thomas, Ontario, saying the people of that city wished to send food, clothing and medical supplies.

Secretary McAdoo placed all the United States life saving stations in the vicinity of the flooded district at the disposal of Governor Cox of Ohio and Governor Ralston of Indiana, ordering the crews to respond immediately and directly to the request of these officials for aid.

CHICAGO STORES FOOD.

CHICAGO, March 27.—The United Charities in Chicago last night planned to rent a large warehouse on the West Side today for the receipt of clothing and food contributions for the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana. All of the work will be done in connection with a general flood committee.

Accordingly, as the supply of food and clothing warrants, relief trains will be started to the scene of the floods.

MONEY IS VOTED.

PUEBLO, Colo., March 27.—First to take action on Governor Ammons' proclamation, the Pueblo Trades Assembly last night voted $1600 for the relief of the stricken citizens of Nebraska, Ohio and Indiana.

Largest Reservoir of Kind Reported Gone

CELINA, Ohio, March 27.—The Grand reservoir has broken, according to information received by E. P. Bonds, manager of the Central Union Telephone Company. If the report proves true flood conditions will be much worse throughout Eastern Indiana and Western Ohio. The reservoir is the largest of its kind in the world and drains ordinarily into the valleys of the Wabash and St. Mary's rivers.

CHICAGO, March 27.—Upon receipt of the reported break of the Grand reservoir at Celina, the Pennsylvania railroad immediately made up a special train and within 45 minutes it had left the city under instructions to get as near the stricken district as possible.

Wheeling Reports Terrible Conditions

WHEELING, W. Va., March 27.—The Ohio river had reached the 48-foot mark at 11 a. m. and was rising four-tenths of an inch an hour. Wheeling, already inundated, feared the worst flood in its history. One more death was reported today from Benwood, just below this city. Fifteen thousand persons are marooned in their homes at Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry, O., opposite here, is similarly affected.

The greatest danger is from the residence section.

The cloud swung down on the residence section of the city and the resulting crash was terrible. It was impossible to make oneself heard above the roar of the storm. Fires started everywhere. Wires went down and sputtered as they crossed and grounded. Death seemed at every hand, and houses were being picked up and tossed about like chips.

"After the cyclone had moved on toward Council Bluffs we heard the wall of the wounded. People were beneath the roof of the bridge and lying stripped of every particle of clothing except their shoes in the middle of the streets and among the debris.

We found two men under a mass of telephone poles, and after working desperately we managed to free

MORE VICTIMS ADDED TO DEATH LIST IN OMAHA

Ruins of Stricken District Are Scoured in Search for More Bodies

OMAHA, March 27.—Two more victims of Omaha's Easter Sunday tornado died during the night. They were Mrs. Pearl Adams, a bride of three weeks, and Mrs. E. S. Snyder. Mayor Dahlman today took occasion to send to the mayors of afflicted Ohio towns an expression of sympathy, in each message bespeaking for the people of Omaha the hope that reports of flood disasters might prove to be exaggerated.

The city was able to put at work today a force of men scouring the ruins of the stricken district in search of additional bodies, many of which Coroner Crosby believes are still buried beneath the ruins.

112 ARE IDENTIFIED.
To this time 112 dead have been already identified in the city of Omaha. Council Bluffs and other adjacent cities report 45, making a total of 157. A number of the injured are still in the hospitals and some of them probably will not recover.

Eye-Witness Tells of Great Tornado
SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—W. H. Early, an attorney of Petaluma, arrived here yesterday direct from Omaha. He was an eye witness to the cyclone that struck that city and caused great loss of life and damage to property. Mr. Early at the office of Harold Ide Cruzan in the Merchants bank building gave a graphic description of his experience. He said:

"I don't want to have anything more to do with cyclones. I was within a fraction of a mile of the Omaha cyclone and was looking for it when it struck the town. Had it hit the business section of the city it would have created untold loss of life.

"I arrived at Omaha Sunday afternoon and went to a downtown hotel. The day was as bad as a California winter afternoon and there was scarce a breath of air stirring. After an automobile ride, a train acquaintance and myself returned to the hotel and a few minutes later a fire alarm sounded. This was shortly before 8 o'clock. We walked down the main street in the direction of the fire and we could see that it was gaining headway. We hurried forward and then came the strange and fatal happening of the night.

"The calm atmosphere suddenly seemed to become surcharged with electricity. A few black clouds gathered. There was a queer feeling of depression and the air seemed to suck one toward the scene of the conflagration. I can not describe the feeling. I never felt anything like it before and hope never to again.

SEES APPROACH OF TORNADO.
"My companion and I walked to the top of a hill and he suddenly turned to me in a startled way and exclaimed, 'Look!'

"What appeared to be a spiral cloud was reaching toward the city. It was bouncing up and down like a boy's diving kite and when it struck the ground there was a tremendous volume of sound, crashing, awful noises like the grinding of innumerable thunders that were being crushed by a mighty hand.

"Both of us were very much frightened, but our curiosity made us forget the terrible danger that we were in. I stood with my eyes fastened on the frightful spectacle and all the while the witchlike wind seemed to keep drawing us by unseen power toward the storm center where lives by scores were being blotted out.

"Windows in the neighborhood where we stood were sucked from their sashes as clearly as if they had been cut out with a glass cutter. It was an uncanny experience. We realized that we were in great danger, but that great, angry, twisting, turning, bounding cloud held us to it with a strange power. I realized that we were helpless and that we might just as well stand still as to attempt to run. No one could tell where that vicious thing was going to strike.

HITS RESIDENCE SECTION.
The cloud swung down on the residence section of the city and the resulting crash was terrible. It was impossible to make oneself heard above the roar of the storm. Fires started everywhere. Wires went down and sputtered as they crossed and grounded. Death seemed at every hand, and houses were being picked up and tossed about like chips.

Fiction Gives Way to Fact in Ohio's Terrible Floods

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 27.—In the Methodist Church on the west side today a woman rescued from the bottomless girth to twins. The only physician available was a victim of the morphine habit. Overwhelmed with the realization of his duty and his inability to perform it unless relieved by the drug he could not get, he went insane.

Mississippi Rising an Inch Every Hour

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 27.—With the Mississippi river several inches above the 32-foot stage and rising about an inch an hour, the local weather bureau forecasts a flood stage of 35 feet by Friday.

From Helena, Ark., an excess of 40 feet is forecasted and at Cairo, Ill., 50 feet or more. The flood stage at Helena is 42 feet and at Cairo 45 feet. Officials of the St. Francis levee board of Arkansas and the United States engineers office here, who have jurisdiction over the levee, regard the situation as grave. Urgent messages were sent today to contractors to hurry the work of bolstering up the dikes at weak points.

All the streams tributary to the Mississippi are rising rapidly and a continued rainfall is reported over a greater part of the upper watershed. The greatest anxiety is felt for the levee at Beulah, Miss., which gave way last January.

Thirty-two feet and five-tenths was registered on the Mississippi river gauge today at 11 a. m. It was still rising at the rate of 2 inches an hour. Many plants have been shut down and schools have let out.

Kentucky River Is at Dangerous Height

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—Kentucky river is higher here today than at any other time in the last twenty years. Flooded by the rains and snow of the last week, the river is now rushing to swell the already flooded Ohio. The 36-foot stage was reached here at 10 o'clock this morning and the river at 11 a. m. was still rising at the rate of 2 inches an hour. Many plants have been shut down and schools have let out.

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage, of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with
Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with
phosphate powder:

68 1/4 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with
alum powder:

67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

RACE TRACK BACKER IS GIVEN PROBATION

SACRAMENTO, March 27. — Freedom on probation, with a five-year prison sentence in Folsom prison held in suspension over his head, was the punishment meted out yesterday to Philip M. Simmons admitted he had signed the petition which others had circulated for him and did not know whether the signature were genuine.

QUENCH JEALOUS FLAMES; ADVICE TO YOUNG WOMEN

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

[Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.]

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

It requires heroic measures for a girl to meet the occasion with fortitude. There is no girl so timid who cannot bravely crush down her grief and rise nobly to the situation if she will. If she leads the old lover to believe that she does not care and her friends as well she has gained a wonderful victory that will stand her in good stead.

A girl should never make cruel, sniping remarks regarding an old lover. How can she tell what the fates have in store? He may fall out with his new love just as he did with her. He may find that he does not love the new sweetheart just as well as he did her; and the longing will come over his heart to come back to her and to sue for pardon, pleading to be reinstated in her confidence and her affection.

Because a girl's lover, with whom she is estranged, goes with another girl through plague his first sweetheart should not shut the door of hope by believing that he is beyond recall. The girl who shows her anger publicly and makes a scene loses him for all time to come. If she is wise she will force a smile to her lips, leaving her fate to him who rules all destinies. If there is yet a man in store for her it is certain that she cannot recede from the love of the one who is going with another girl. If another was capable of warming his heart into love's glow surely he is not one to whom she could trust her after life's happiness.

Love is a mystery. It is marvelous. Who can account for its coming or its going? But all women should know this, that the man does not love her who will wound her heart by peering attentions to another woman.

DIVORCED MAN OF 59.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a divorced man of 59 and am deeply in love with a young lady who is 22. The separation was merely the result of a domestic quarrel, and five years have elapsed since then. My daughters, two in number, object to the marriage on account of our ages. My daughters both have lucrative positions and I have some of this world's goods. My former wife lives with her relatives and is well provided for, so I see no reason for delaying any longer. We have been engaged for one year and I am sure we could be happy. A person might as well be happy in his old age as not, and yet I would not want to cause my daughters anxiety. She would be well provided with every modern convenience, even though she is an old man's darling. Please advise whether I should marry her or listen to my daughters, because their only reason for objection is our ages, and after all there is not so much of a contrast.

PERPLEXED.
Marriage is a matter for the individual to decide. I think, however, it would be unwise to say the least for a man almost 60 to marry a girl of 22.

A FELLOW AND I.
"Dear Miss Libbey: A fellow and I have kept steady company until a few months ago. He usually came up twice a week, although he begged me to let him come up every evening. Well, this summer when I went away I sent all my boy and girl friends cards. I wouldn't let this young man go to the train with me, and he didn't go. I told him where I left the card, he would have to write me before he would hear from me. I didn't tell him the reason, but it was because I knew it would get around and be made a lot worse. My girl chum wrote and told me everything he had done during my absence, which I did not like. She let him read my letters and she said that he did enjoy them and he seemed to be so lonesome for me. Just the week before I came home I received a letter from him and I answered and then he wrote again and this time I did not have time to write. When I came home he called twice the first week and then he went away for his vacation. I received a letter from him which I did not answer. Then he broke off completely. He does not go with any girl that I know of. I have met him at several dances lately and he always hangs around with me and in filling out his program he asks me for as many dances as I will let him have. I won't give him any encouragement. I don't want him to think I care anything for him. What troubles me is I think that a girl friend (?) of mine has told him some things against me, as she runs after him and she was jealous of me when I went with him. All my friends tell me that he is crazy to make up. This girl told him some untruths about me once before which made a little trouble. But when he came back to me he told me how much he loved me and so on.

Vera, you make a mistake in treating the fellow that way. What would you think of a friend of yours who would act so with you? At least, you would think him mighty strange. If you are so bent on letting him think you don't care anything about him you surely will succeed. That's a very foolish way to act. If you like him treat him that way. If you like him. It isn't necessary nor always wise for a girl to let a man know she is extremely fond of him. But it is even more foolish to want to give him the impression that you don't care for him when you really do.

SENATOR PERKINS HAS DREAM OF DROWNING

WASHINGTON, March 27. — Senator Perkins of California, in order to recuperate from the strains of the recent session of Congress, went to a sanatorium a few days ago. He missed his own comfortable quarters from the first, and to make things worse the water overflowed last night on the story above him, saturating the floor and ceiling and dripping on his face, until he awoke with a night mare of a wreck at sea. Apart from the loss of his night's rest, he suffered no bad consequences, it is believed, and the management will try to see that he does not experience a repetition of the unpleasantness.

GRIDLEY, March 27.—Thaddeus Kerns, the boy aviator, at Chico fell 150 feet to earth near the Live Oak cemetery. Just north of this city, this morning while preparing for a flight to Marysville. The Citizens Rate Payers' Protective Association, through its president, J. H. Munjar, has failed in its attempt to enlist the Merchants' Exchange in its fight against the telephone company. At the exchange, Munjar urged that a fight be started to reduce rates, and Secretary Wilbur Walker, in opposing such action, said that the telephone company has the right to charge five cents for switches between Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, and did not do so, its rates, even if high, were justified.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland was appointed as the Exchange's delegate to the Lake Mohonk peace convention, which meets at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., July 10-12. The delegate has for several years represented the exchange at this meeting, which has for its objective the advocacy of international arbitration.

Knowland left for the convention today to attend the state development board dinner in Sacramento. Craigie Sharp will also attend this affair. Later today he will attend the St. Louis Legion Congress.

DON'T SCOLD AN IRRITABLE CHILD

See if Tongue Isn't Coated, Stomach Sour and Bowels Waste-Clogged.

Mother! Don't scold your cross, peevish child! Look at the tongue! See if it is white, yellow and coated! If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily, is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, sore throat, or is full of cold, it means that the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with poison and foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of the little waste-clogged bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious, genuine, old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

In the evening a clever entertainment will be given of Mother Goose melodies sung and acted by pretty children. The "Dance of Cock Robin" will be sung by four well known soloists, and illustrated with pantomime. Mrs. Little Swale Stearns will also give some of her inimitable interpretations of child life. Mrs. A. E. Hall is chairman of the day, and has many able and enthusiastic workers under her.

TO REPEAT PLAY. BERKELEY, March 27.—The "New Minister" will be seen once more in Berkeley Friday evening, March 28, at the First M. E. church, corner Alston way and Byron streets. Those who saw the performance on the 14th were so pleased with the entertainment that Mrs. Miller, the director, has been requested to repeat it.

THEATERS HOLD MANY ATTRACTIONS

SEASON'S BEST OFFERINGS ARE HERE

SOME OF THOSE WHO ARE PROVIDING ENTERTAINMENT FOR LARGE AUDIENCES IN THE MANY OAKLAND THEATERS THIS WEEK.

TONIGHT, for the last time, Leo Dittschstein, Isabelle Irving and a splendid Belasco company will be seen at the Macdonough theater in "The Prince of Pilsen." The production has proved to be one of the cleverest comedies given in Oakland this season.

"The Prince of Pilsen" returns to the Macdonough theater next Sunday night. In all the dazzling exhibit of female loveliness and pulchritude with which Henry W. Savage's beauty chorus of "Prince of Pilsen" abounds, the face and form of Evelyn Mead peeps out with a beauty that appeals in the dark and serious way for the Mead girl is of the brunette type.

With uplifted head poised gracefully on a neck and bust that are matchless, she is not only adorable, but ravishingly beautiful; in fact, worthy to sit for Paul Thurnham, the Viennese artist who paints women exquisitely.

Miles Mead is the Philadelphia girl in "The Song of the Cities," one of the fetching musical numbers in Gustav Luder's fascinating and tuneful score. She is anything else, though, but serious. Miles Mead is of French extraction and full of all the chic and abandon characteristic of her people.

FRECKLES. "Freckles" comes to the Macdonough for three nights and Wednesday matinee next Monday night. Those who have read Gene Stratton-Porter's fascinating novel of the same title—and they number in the millions—will be even more delighted with this charming play which evokes all the fragrance and romance of the great Indiana Lumberland. It is not only the light of an inspiration but it is one of the most realistic and picturesque productions of modern stagecraft, for the beauty of nature and the breath of romance are found in the story.

You must know Freckles, the little red-headed homeless waif, so many people all over the world have read about. This story, his life, have irresistibly appealed to and enthralled people in half a dozen languages.

You will listen to the simple story of his simple life as he tells it to his "angel," you will see the light of joy, shadow of sadness, flash of mirth, and earnestness of desire, playing in his eyes and on his lips as he tells her of his great love. You will see him rise from a lowly life to one of affluence and power, through indomitable courage, supreme faith and impenetrable honesty.

It is a real joy. Nothing as graceful has even before been given on the stage as is their dancing, while in comedy lines they have a travesty that ranks with anything current in vaudeville. Their very clever travesty on Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt and M. Lou Tellegen, in a "problem play," is something that everybody enjoys.

The program carries the announcement that Rock and Fulton are on the final tour as a team, and it is stated by those familiar with the plans of the team that next season they are to head separate organizations in "musical comedy." Their abandonment of vaudeville will be a distinct loss to vaudeville.

Two excellent musical acts divide honors. Those who love the harp, the finest of all instruments, are agreed that the playing of Mlle. Carmen is unequalled among vaudeville harpists. Her selections are not only pleasing, but her playing has a brilliancy and dash that is fascinating. Signor Guerro, the other half of this team, plays the violin with a master touch and the same general brilliancy makes his work.

"The Girl from Milwaukee," who has successfully concealed her real name, gives any act on the bill a rub for first honors, her voice being of such sweetness and volume that she is a pronounced hit.

In the realm of juggling and fun making Jean Bedini and his dusky partner, Roy Ritur, are in a class by themselves, causing constant hysterical laughter. The funniest of their act is a balancing act. These acts do not constitute all the good things of the bill, as Bert Howard and Edna Lawrence in "The Cigar Girl," Lida McMillan and company in "The Late Mr. Allen," and the Reed brothers, serialists and fun makers, are real Orpheum stars.

The talking moving pictures show a scene from "The Temptation of Faust," and a comedy, "Jack's Joke," both of which are clever illusions and of great interest.

IDORA PARK. With the advent of good weather Idora Park has a welcome to scenes of life and gaiety after an inauspicious opening on Easter Sunday. It made the spectators shiver and huz their furs to watch "Little Robbie" take his 16-foot plunge into the pool twice daily. These special free attractions will continue for sometime and those who have not seen the daring diving from dizzy heights have a thrill coming to them when they go out to Idora.

The park is more beautiful than ever this spring. A number of improvements

JENNIE CROCKER EXPECTS AN HEIR

Millionaire Arrives in Private Car From East; Caught in Storm Belt.

PERLINGAME, March 27.—Mrs. Madeline Whitman (Jennie Crocker) that was arrived yesterday from New York in her private car, accompanied by her husband and two children. She went directly to her home on Franklin, where she was joyfully greeted by her brother, Templeton Crocker, and other members of her family.

Not the least interesting news in connection with Mrs. Whitman's arrival was that the Crocker house had been home for an event that will perpetuate the Crocker line and the family name. Considerable anxiety was felt for the safety when it became known that the train to which the car was attached was in the middle west when the tornado swept Nebraska and Iowa.

The husband, who was in Boston, however, was expected to arrive in the future to help him in the business. It is a fact that she might have been in Omaha at the time of the disaster.

These fears were dispelled later by receipt of telegrams in San Francisco from Mrs. Whitman that she had passed through Nebraska safely and would arrive tomorrow.

MARK PATES EXPELLED FOR CROSS TRADING

CHICAGO, March 27.—Mark Pates, until recently president of the grain firm of W. J. Pates & Company, has been expelled from the Board of Trade here. The directors found Pates guilty of "cross trading." Frank M. Bunch, former president of the Board of Trade, was expelled a short time ago on a similar charge.

Spinnato's Banda Roma, with 11 artists, a delightful band of the interesting director, is highly appreciated. Then there is the company representing an Italian man-of-war, men dressed as sailors, electrical effects showing the boat going through the water at high speed, and a tableau with Miss Columbia in the background.

To return to the Gray trio, two strolling looking women with cultivated voices, soprano and mezzo-soprano, and a rather handsome man with excellent dramatic abilities. The trio has talent and the audience shows their knowledge and appreciation by a surplus of ancores.

Charles A. Loder & Company, with Miss Ruby Loder and Harry K. Stuart, presenting the "Night Doctor," a farce-comedy, which Loder has good chance to display his ability as a German comedian.

DISPLAYS SKILL. Ralph Erney in acrobatic feats and displays of skill and strength. Williams and Sterling, a young man and woman, have established themselves as great favorites with their singing and patter and the girl's "Come here, Johnnie," is already a catch phrase around town. Barne and West, good musical dancers. Four Quick, a comedian, and comedy motion pictures round out an enjoyable evening's entertainment.

For the coming week there will be the three Navarros, acrobats; Magoe and Kerry, comedians; Ollie Eaton & Company, a sketch team; the three Merle Moore's "Lads and Lassies"; Mlle. Merle Moore and her ballet; and the Blue Ribbon Girls.

COLUMBIA. "A Married Widow" is tripping into popularity at the Columbia fun emporium in Fifth street this week. The new skit has proved a most excellent vehicle for those jolly fellows, Dillon and King, with their associate players.

The next skit is filled to the brim with tuneful melodies, laughable situations, pretty girls and up-to-date witticisms. Beautiful costumes are being displayed by principals and chorus alike, while the scenery and stage settings are far from the commonplace.

The plot has to do with the matrimonial adventures of several couples but principally with those of General Mille Puffup and his bride, the newly married widow. August Summer with his son add to the complications when their endeavor to leave Mrs. Von Nostrom and her daughter Geraldine to the altar. A specially prepared dish of bean soup figures strongly in the plot and nearly results in the complete undoing of the military man.

Ben T. Dillon and Will King are the principal story tellers and they are assisted by the remaining members of the company, including Charlie Kelly, Maude Beatty, Ernest Van Pelt, Vilma Stech, Teddy LaDue and Malile Townsend. Several pleasing selections are to be found in the musical program while the scenery and costumes leave nothing to be desired.

"Tannamra, the Gypsy," is the title adopted by the Lubin company for its latest two-reel feature, which is now playing at the Oakland Photo theater. The rather remarkable beauty of Tannamra, a Gypsy girl, causes a young man to forsake his sweetheart. After his marriage to the Gypsy he in turn is forsaken and love plays numerous capers in the adjustment.

Mary Fuller, the Edison star, is being featured in "Kathleen Mavourneen," which has been taken from the old play, HONORED IN HISTORY.

The name of "Kathleen Mavourneen" has been honored in song and play, but it has remained for the Edison company to present the dramatic and pathetic story in magnificent detail upon the screen. Set in truly Irish atmosphere, with the title role in the hands of gifted Mary Fuller, with scenes of the fiercest intensity, and others of tenderest sentiment, this film play is one to stir the emotions and grip the heart.

Floa Finch brought down the house in a Viennese comedy entitled "Love Laughs at Locksmiths," while a Biograph drama is on entitled "The Welcome Intruder."

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 80 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines.

It is to be regretted that there are people who are engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

SUBSTITUTE LIST LAW IS PROPOSED

New Plan Will Permit Employment of New Fire Official.

Technical obstacles in the city charter to the filling of the two places left vacant by the retirement of Assistant Fire Chief George McDonald and Corporal H. C. Arnest will be circumvented by an ordinance introduced by Commissioner F. C. Turner today. The ordinance will provide for the creation of the position of substitute assistant fire chief, substitute second assistant, and substitute battalion chief. A similar ordinance will be introduced in the police department matter, in all probability.

The city charter provides that if a man is retired for disability prior to the regular age of retirement, he shall have his position back in case of recovery from the disability. City Auditor George Gross declares that the provisions accepted by McDonald and Arnest cannot be filled legally until they reach the regular age of retirement, but he believes that by creating the substitute ranks the departments can get around this obstacle, and he will pay the salaries for the substitute ranks. The ordinance has been referred to City Attorney Ben F. Woolner.

COUNTY EXHIBIT PLANS MATURE

Many Firms Sign for Space; a Big Searchlight Will Play on Crowded Street.

Elaborate plans for the great home products exhibition, to be held in the new Kahn Building, under the auspices of the Manufacturers' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, are taking shape. A large number of exhibitors have signed for space, and others are coming in daily. Architect's plans are being made for the great ornamental arch, which will also contain the band-stand, and which will be lighted with hundreds of electric globes.

The lighting scheme of the exhibition will be one of the features of the affair. Over 185 huge lights, of 250 candle-power apiece, will shine from ceilings and walls and a big searchlight, from the syndicate building, will play on the crowds on the streets during the evenings.

MARE ISLAND TO HAVE FIRST CALL

Congressman Knowland Says He Favors Oakland as Second Choice.

"Mare Island and Vallejo will be given every opportunity to prove their case, in connection with the proposed naval base. Of course, if the government finally decides to move it, I will be up to my ears in the fight for Oakland."

So said Congressman J. P. Knowland today in discussing the proposed location of land in the Key Route basin to the federal authorities for the dry docks, proposed in the city council yesterday by Commissioner Harry S. Arneson. The resolution passed by the council practically took the same attitude the congressman holds to, that, should Vallejo not get the concession, Oakland should.

THREE HUNDRED DIE IN BATTLE

Mining Town in Mexico Is the Scene of a Bloody Conflict.

NACO, Ariz., March 27.—With an estimated total of three hundred killed during yesterday's fighting in the American mining town of Cananea, the three hundred federalists late yesterday prevented the state troops' attempt to take their position by assault. More than one thousand state troops were driven back, although for a time holding a wing of the barracks on the Mesa land where Colonel Munoz is fortified.

The Huerta garrison is reported to have lost few men. The slaughter of the attackers was great. The charge was led by Yaqui Indians, who fought until nearly exterminated. The wounded died unattended on the field, with no cessation of the firing to permit their rescue. The state troops have cut the Cananea water supply.

EL PASO, Texas, March 26.—The federal garrison at Santa Barbara, near Parral, last night succeeded in routing the state troops attacking the town, say advices here late today. The attack lasted nearly three days.

Patient Says He Did Not and Refuses to Pay Bill of $200.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—A scene in the office of Dr. S. Trask, a local physician of 1324 Octavia street, in which there figured Miss Eugenia Borden, who lives at the Court hotel; her brother, J. Borden, and a Miss Francis, sister of Governor Francis of Missouri, all figure prominently, was depicted in vivid fashion by the physician on the witness stand in Justice of the Peace Barnett's court today.

From the story told by Dr. Trask and the incidents as related by Miss Borden, it would appear as though the surgeon, with the young woman as a patient, and a nurse were at work in the operating room while Miss Francis was teaching J. Borden to dance in the ante-room. The case hinges on whether or not the surgeon performed an operation of Miss Borden's nose, for which he seeks to collect $200 from her. Miss Borden declared that she had been taken to Dr. Trask's office by Miss Francis, whom she and her brother met at an all portrait exhibition at the St. Francis hotel. She remained on the operating table all afternoon and declares the doctor kept poking cotton wool in her nasal passages, but that he never operated.

In this she is corroborated by her brother. On the other hand, Dr. Trask says he removed a large bone from her nose and showed it to her. This version is also given by Miss Kate Miller, the nurse.

Borden declared that he had seen no bone and that there had been no hemorrhage.

FLOOD BULLETINS

MIDDLETOWN, O., March 27.—Paralyzed with fear 18,000 souls in Middletown awoke this morning to face perils that threaten her very existence.

Ten thousand persons are homeless and unsheltered and cooked food is unobtainable. Thirty persons are known to be missing and eleven are unaccounted for.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 27.—Telephone connection with Zanesville, O., was severed this morning after the following message came through the local office from the Zanesville chief operator:

"We are leaving the exchange in Zanesville. Water up to the second story, conditions here getting worse every minute."

VANDALIA, Ind., March 27.—The Okawa river levee, sixteen miles south of here broke in four places last night and sixty thousand acres of farming land is under from one to eight feet of water.

CAIRO, Ill., March 27.—The Ohio river here has passed the flood stage at 45 feet and now is creeping over many acres of lowlands. The stage this morning was 45.6 feet.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Surgeon General Blue, chief of the federal health service, left today to take personal charge of the federal medical officers rendering assistance to distressed Indiana and Ohio.

BACON TAUGHT AT BERKELEY 25 YEARS

Graduated From Yale and Was Descendant of Roger Bacon.

Funeral Friday Afternoon From Residence at 1313 Bushnell Place.

BERKELEY, March 27.—The funeral services for Professor Thomas R. Bacon of the department of history of the University of California, whose death occurred last evening, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Bacon residence, 1313 Bushnell place. Services will be conducted by Rev. Lamb Parsons, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Hodgkin.

Professor Bacon, who had been failing in health for more than a year, had been a member of the university faculty for 25 years and was noted as a writer, lecturer and authority on modern European history. He was born in 1850 in New Haven, Conn. He was graduated from Yale in 1872. Dr. Bacon entered the Congregational ministry and for a time was pastor of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley.

DEATH COMES YESTERDAY.—Professor Bacon's death occurred shortly after 7 o'clock last evening. He had been in poor health for the past year, but not until Monday did it seem likely that his illness might have so untoward a conclusion. Late Monday afternoon he lapsed into an unconsciousness from which he did not revive. Organic heart disease was the cause of death.

Deceased was 63 years of age. He had been a member of the University of California faculty for over a quarter of a century. He is survived by a sister, Miss Alice Bacon, who is well known as a writer on Japan, and a cousin, Leonard Bacon, of 2247 Piedmont avenue, a lecturer in the English department of the university. Mrs. Bacon, wife of the deceased, died some months ago and there were no children.

AUTHORITY ON HISTORY.—Deceased was professor of modern European history in the university and considered an authority on the French revolution. He was graduated from Yale in 1872. He came from a famous old New England family, all of whom were Yale men. His father, Rev. Leonard Bacon, was a man of national reputation, pastor of the First Congregational Church of New Haven, one of the most important churches in New England. After his graduation Professor Bacon entered the ministry. He held various Congregational pulpits, the chief of which was at Terre Haute, Ind. It was here that he met his wife, then Miss Poote. In the late eighties Professor Bacon took the pastorate of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, but soon after he became a lecturer in history in the university. He was given a full professorship in 1890, and since then has been continually a member of the faculty. He was a brilliant lecturer, a particular authority on the French revolution and a speaker always in demand for public occasions. The several books from his pen on literary and historical themes are all in a highly interesting and witty style.

Yeggmen Blow Depot Safe and Get $140

Robbers Break Into Toolhouse and Leave Scattered Papers Along Track.

YREKA, March 27.—Two robbers dynamited the safe of the Yreka railroad between midnight and 2 o'clock this morning, after having robbed the tool house, and escaped with $140. The men left no clue as to their identity.

The men passed the safe through the window of the tool house and then proceeded to blow the combination vault with a heavy charge of nitro-glycerin.

Papers taken from the safe were found scattered along the tracks this morning. The methods of the robbery were similar to those pursued in the robbery of the Keswick depot ten days ago.

SEPARATION CAUSES MECHANIC TO END LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—Grieving over a separation from his wife and youngsters who are in the country, and fearful that he would not be able to obtain the work which he had sought, Charles Knige, a mechanic, about 35 years old, committed suicide in a lodging house at 441 Minna street. This morning he was found dead in bed with gas flowing from an open jet. The windows and doors had been carefully closed.

NEW SKY-LINE BOULEVARD SURVEYED

Chamber of Commerce Committee Makes Inspection Trip Over Route.

The Highway Will Be Western Wonder, Extending for Many Miles.

The "Sky Line Boulevard," which, on completion, will be one of the most remarkable scenic highways in the world, was surveyed yesterday by the boulevard committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Dr. G. B. N. Clow, the party traversing such parts of the sixty-five mile driveway as are at the present time passable in an automobile. The wonderful road will run from Richmond to Mount Hamilton, its end being the Link observatory. From Richmond to Berkeley a route has already been inspected and yesterday's trip was principally devoted to viewing the Oakland section, running south and east from the Tunnel road. F. C. Havens owns a large portion of this route and is constructing the road along the crest of the Berkeley hills.

SKY LINE ROUTE.—When the Havens plans are complete the road will run along the sky line past Diamond canyon and through "The Heights," the home of Joaquin Miller. The route traverses the "panhandle" district of East Oakland, extending to the Leavenworth road and thence through the Livermore and Santa Clara valleys.

The members of the party who made the trip with Dr. Clow were Francis Smith, a member of the committee; Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont; D. W. McLaughlin of Richmond; Arthur Jenney, engineer for F. C. Havens; and M. Auerbach, assistant city engineer of Oakland. Later a trip will be made over the southern section of the route.

The trip yesterday was made through the "Snake Road," which will be sixteen feet wide, with oil rock surface, and over property of the Realty Syndicate and Leona Heights. The machines traversed the hilltops at a good rate of speed, with no difficulty, although the roads are not yet put into perfect shape.

Novel sign posts are being planned to guide the tourists who will, on completion of the big road, make it famous for its auto parties. These will probably be in stone or concrete, decorated with flowers. Money is already being subscribed for these. During the exposition it is believed that the road, which will be by that time in perfect shape, will rival the Tamaulipas trip or any other famous driveway.

WILL WED MINING ENGINEER MISS ELLA SMITH BRIDE-ELECT

MISS ELLA BENEDICT SMITH, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY IN SAN JOSE.—Rice Photo.

Engagement of San Jose Belle to Charles Philip Boone Is Announced

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Ella Benedict Smith and Charles Philip Boone is of interest to a wide circle of friends in the bay cities. The pleasant news was told this afternoon at a luncheon at the Hotel Vendome in San Jose, at which Miss Smith entertained a coterie of friends in honor of Mrs. Herbert Edward Smith of Berkeley, who came to California from New York following her marriage a few months ago.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford P. Smith and is well known in musical circles, being the possessor of a beautiful voice. Her fiancé is the son of the late Professor P. R. Boone of Berkeley and Mrs. Boone. He is a graduate of the University of California and a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is now following his profession of mining engineering and has recently returned from India, where he explored some mines for his uncle, Charles Butters.

SAILOR CANNOT TELL WHERE HE WAS ROBBED

Chris Jasperson, mate of a schooner the name of which he is unable to tell on account of his present condition, informed the police today that he had been robbed of $25 in coin. Jasperson was unable to tell in which of the resorts he visited the money disappeared. A room thief at the Grand house, 332 Seventh street, entered the room of J. Dolmann last night and stole two stick pins and a shaving set. The theft was reported to the police this morning.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED BY MAYOR

Prominent Business Men Are Entrusted With Labors of Raising Funds.

Messages of Sympathy Sent to Governors of Ohio and Indiana.

Oakland has a committee of fifteen active citizens fully formed and with an efficient fund raising organization behind it ready to commence raising money for the relief of the thousands of homeless sufferers in the stricken districts of Ohio and Indiana immediately word is received as to the aid required in response to telegrams that were sent out last night.

The plan of action was decided upon at a meeting called by Mayor Frank K. Mott at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. Several persons spoke, among them being A. S. Lavenson, Fred Kahn, O. E. Hotte, D. H. Perkins and R. H. Leet.

PURPOSE EXPLAINED.

"I have felt that as executive of Oakland it becomes my duty to call this assemblage together. California has always been generous in giving in times of distress and the help that we received when our sister city, San Francisco, fell makes us more than grateful and willing to do our part toward lending succor to Dayton and other cities that have fallen victims to the floods," said Mayor Mott in explaining the necessity for a relief fund. It was the sentiments of the assemblage that any amount that Oakland could send in money would be a mere drop in the bucket, but with Oakland doing her share and every other city in the United States doing the same the situation could be coped with.

As soon as a reply is received to the telegrams sent last night the fund raising organization that was used at the time of the anti-annexation fight will be put into the field.

The members of the relief committee appointed by Mayor Mott are as follows: W. W. Garfield, P. E. Bowles, E. F. Adams, Harmon Bell, V. H. McCull, R. M. Fitzgerald, R. J. McMullen, J. Y. Eccleston, L. G. Burpee, Walter H. Leimert, Jules Abrahamson, A. S. Lavenson, H. C. Taft, Fred Kahn, W. E. Gibson, C. J. Heesman, C. H. Redington, A. G. Taft, O. E. Hotte, Robert Robertson, J. F. Cummins, G. B. Daniels.

MESSAGES SENT OUT.

To Governor Cox of Ohio and Governor Ralston of Indiana the following messages were sent to which replies are expected at any moment. OAKLAND, March 26.—Hon. James B. Cox, Governor of Ohio, Columbus, Ohio: The people of this city are shocked and distressed beyond measure at the terrible calamity that has stricken the people of Ohio. We wish to render immediate aid and assistance. A relief committee has been organized and is ready for action. Command us. FRANK K. MOTT, Mayor City of Oakland.

OAKLAND, March 26.—Hon. Samuel M. Ralston, Governor of Indiana, Indianapolis, Ind.: The people of Oakland, Cal., are appalled at the disaster that has befallen the State of Indiana. A relief committee has been organized and will be prepared to render immediate assistance. In what manner can we be of service? FRANK K. MOTT, Mayor of Oakland.

The Oakland Commercial Club also sent messages of condolence to the governors of the two States asking in what way it could help.

CITIZENSHIP IS DENIED TAILOR

Meyer Gorelick, Who Was the Cause of Recent Strike,
Grilled by Judge.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 26.—Meyer Gorelick the tailor whose discharge for insubordination was the cause of the late strike called here by the Industrial Workers of the World against tailoring establishments, was denied admission to citizenship by Superior Judge A. W. Frater today. Gorelick, told Judge Frater that he was no longer a member of the Industrial Workers of the World and had joined the union to obtain work. He said he could not read English well enough to understand the I. W. W. literature and that none of the tailors cared anything about the principles of the organization. In denying with prejudice the application Judge Frater said:

"Yes, you have passed a good examination relating to the government of this country and yet try to make this court believe you joined an organization and did not attempt to find out its purpose or its aim—an organization which teaches confiscation of property, violation of contracts, revolution and the taking of anything you want the easiest way you can get it. It stands for all these things and you could not understand that but still you understand the organized institutions of the United States. You said you had to become a member of that organization to obtain work. A man that can be forced to become a member of an organization of that character is not fit to become a citizen of the United States."

SACRAMENTO, March 27.—Written opposite the name of P. This action was taken by the members of the company Tuesday night, when the recent notorious escapade of young Caminetti, who, although a married man of family, together with Mauri J. Diggs, eloped to Reno with two prominent high school girls of this city, was brought up for discussion.

PIRATE'S GUN IS FOUND IN BAY

Boatman's Anchor Drags Up a
Relic Believed to Be 200
Years Old.

Perhaps a relic of the gay old buccannery who sailed the Pacific in the days of Sir Francis Drake was pulled out of the bay yesterday. Captain John George, of the tugboat "Point San Quentin," thinks so.

George was heaving in his anchor when it caught in the mud drawing with it a blunderbuss of the type his forefathers used when hunting was good around Plymouth Rock.

The rotted stock was covered with oysters and mussels, and the steel barrel was crusted with the rust of years. Around the lock a solid covering of sandstone had formed and to this queer geological formation Captain George pointed as proof that his find was more than two hundred years old.

PROPOSES WORLD'S NAVAL HOLIDAY

Lord Churchill Outlines Year's Cessation of Rivalry in Armaments.

LONDON, March 26.—A naval holiday for a year, as far as new construction is concerned, was the offer made to the world today by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, when he moved the British naval estimates to the House of Commons. In this way, he says, the world would obtain almost instantaneous mitigation of the thrall of the arms race, the evil and insensate folly of the present naval rivalry in armaments. Scores of millions, he declared, were being squandered each year without making any real difference in the relative strength of the nations. His proposal, he argued, would involve no alteration in the relative strength of the world's navy, and added:

"We address this proposal to all nations and to no nation with more profound sincerity than to our great neighbor over the North Sea."

CHURCHILL MAKES PROPOSAL.

Mrs. Churchill, in a speech delivered later in the House of Commons, proposed that Germany and Great Britain agree to cancel their programs of construction for the year 1914. He suggested that the influence of such an agreement would be priceless and measureless in giving a wider international scope to an arrangement for the prevention of wasteful, purposeless and futile folly.

The first lord of the admiralty said he was confident that this treatment of the subject was the only way to terminate one of the most stupid and unnatural chapters in the history of European civilization.

Mr. Churchill announced that the British admiralty had arranged to lend to first class British liners guns, ammunition and trained gunners to enable those vessels to protect commerce in time of war against armed foreign merchantmen.

ASKS DAMAGE.

STOCKTON, March 27.—Elias Sternberg filed suit yesterday against the El Dorado Brewing Company for damages in the sum of $558.95 for the loss of a hand. The complaint reads that Sternberg lost his hand as the result of an accident at the brewery June 3 last.

KENT LINES UP WITH DEMOCRATS

Progressive Congressman Will Not Act With Party at Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Representatives Kent of California, Lenroot of Washington and Anderson of Minnesota, Progressive Republicans, announced today that they would not join the House Progressives in a new third party organization, and would not vote for Representative Victor Murdock for Speaker.

Each said he believed Progressive ends could best be attained at present by supporting the present administration, and he intended to co-operate with the administration in every way, so long as it continued to carry out Progressive policies.

"I can see no good to be accomplished at this time by a third party lineup in the House of Representatives," said Representative Kent. "President Wilson has brought assurance of his intent to realize, as far as may be, those Progressive ideas which are held by all open-minded and forward-looking men. To my mind, our best services can be rendered by aiding him, and those with him, toward securing the legislation which we desire and for which we have worked in the past."

DOUBLE SENSATIONAL MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

ALLABHAD, British India, March 27.—The trial of Lieutenant Clark and Mrs. Fulham, his accomplice, which opened yesterday, caused a great sensation in India. They were charged with poisoning Mr. Fulham and attempting to murder Mrs. Clark in order that they might marry. Mrs. Clark was found wounded and later died. The crime was discovered through correspondence which had passed between the two prisoners.

Sequel To Love For Doll

Maternal Instinct Greatly Developed by Teaching Children to Love their Dolls.

The little child's doll is mother to the most romantic fairy. And in the years that pass, the doll fades into the petals of a June rose, to evolve the most wonderful of all transformations.

And now comes a more serious period when the joy of real motherhood should be as tranquil as best effort can provide. This is accomplished with a wonderful remedy known as Mother's Friend, an external application so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every corner, nerve, muscle and tendon involved.

There will be no pain, none of that nausea or morning sickness, no sensation of distress or strain of expanding muscles. The pores, too, will be calm, thus making the period one of restful days, of peaceful nights and a source of happiest anticipation. The young, expectant mother must be carefully watched lest she become absorbed in those mental distresses which ill prepare her for the most important event in her life.

Mother's Friend enables her to avoid all sensation of distress, worry or pain, and she is preserved in health and strength to take up the joyful task of motherhood. You will find Mother's Friend on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Do not fail to use it regularly as directed.
